Respect Life Month Speaker
Emily Stumpo ~ Euthanasia

About the talk: Emily will cover Euthanasia and Assisted Living, the laws for Michigan, laws in the nation citing some states and countries where it is practiced. She will cover some of the organizations who are fighting it, as well as, why it is wrong and part of the pro-life movement. Her presentation will include videos.

About Emily: She was born and raised in Detroit and is a recent graduate of U of M with a BA in Psychology and Spanish and a minor in Community Action & Social Change. She is currently serving as Michigan Regional Coordinator for Students for Life of America.

Emily's passion for pro-life activism was ignited during her first experiences of discrimination at U of M based on her pro-life values. These experiences taught her how important it is to know how to accurately articulate the pro-life position on campus, and to be actively supporting pregnant and parenting students. She believes in not just "talking the talk" but "walking the walk" by providing supportive services to women in crisis to show this nation that we can indeed move to a post-Roe America where every woman and child is valued.
