Frequently Asked Questions

Can I register at the walk?

Yes, but only those who pre-register by October 11th are guaranteed a shirt, in the size selected. Call us at 734.422.6230 to pre-register.

What are the changes due to COVID-19?

With respect to COVID we will be doing staggered starting times. Please register in advance to select a start time. We will practice social distancing. Please bring a mask.

What if I don't want to ask for pledges?

A minimum donation is then required:

Advance registration: $15/per adult (18+ years), $10/per youth (13-17 years), $5/per child (under age 13 years)

Can I make additional donations?

Absolutely! All donations are appreciated and help! Donations made to Right to Life-LIFESPAN Educational Fund are tax deductible!

What if I can't come and walk on October 18th?

We will be assigning walkers who will walk for those who are unable to attend the day of the event. Please send in your pledge money!

What if it rains?

Unless there is lightning, the Walk will go on, as planned.

What time should I get there?

Meet us outside our office on the corner of Schoolcraft and Brookfield in Livonia by 1:30 PM to register or come 15 minutes before your start time and get your free t-shirt (guaranteed for pre-registered walkers. Additional shirts available, while supplies last).

When does my pledge money need to be turned in?

By November 2nd to Right to Life-LIFESPAN Educational Fund Wayne County Office: 32540 Schoolcraft Rd., Suite 210, Livonia, MI 48150

What are the prizes being given?

- T-Shirts for attending walkers, while supplies last. (Those walkers registered by October 11th are guaranteed the size they prefer in shirts.)
- A Walk for Life pin will be given to walkers who bring in $100 or more in pledges.
